

Cash Management Solutions to fit your Business

Brink's Cash-In-Transit

Helping your Business Succeed

From deposits and change funds to coin delivery and ATM cash replenishment, Brink's Cash-in-Transit (CIT) service has been the safe, secure choice in logistics since 1927. Today, thousands of companies across Canada trust Brink's to protect their businesses from the risks associated with transporting and handling currency and valuables, providing costs savings and increased productivity allowing your employees to focus on your business and your customers.

Brink's CompuSafe®

Smart Solution, Smart Safe

Streamline your cash management processes to gain back valuable time and money with Brink's CompuSafe®. Our smart safe, closed-loop solution automates cash handling from the moment a customer pays until the cash is deposited in the bank, eliminating deposit discrepancies, reducing theft and freeing staff from the time intensive tasks of counting, recounting and auditing cash, preparing deposits and transporting cash to and from the bank.

Access to Funds

Accelerate the time to availability for deposited funds with Express Deposit Access through Brink's partnership with Alterna Savings and Alterna Bank.

Enhanced Visibility

Enhanced reporting provides immediate verification of deposits, helping you audit cash activity by store, shift or cashier.

Improved Security and Loss Prevention

Exposure to internal and external theft is greatly minimized.

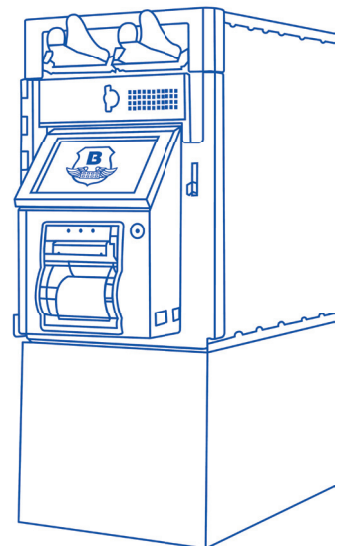

Increased Productivity

Allow your employees to focus on what really matters, your customers.

Express Deposit Access

Powered by Alterna  alterna

Brink's Smart Safe and Alterna Express Deposit Access provide you the member / customer access to your cash deposits the next day without the need to pay for daily transportation. For members who have selected the Brink's CompuSafe service with Express Deposit Access, a deposit is made to your account and the physical cash is collected and transported by Brink's to a cash processing centre, once or twice a week.
