

Dorothy Watson honoured with the Gary Gillam Award

Vancouver, B.C. – April 30, 2020 – Central 1 and Alterna Savings are proud to announce Dorothy Watson as the recipient of the 24th annual, 2020 Gary Gillam award. This award celebrates exemplary social responsibility and sustainability within the Canadian credit union system.

Throughout her 37-year career, Dorothy Watson has been recognized as an impactful and inspiring leader, showcasing cooperative principles, while advancing social responsibility and sustainability. She has advocated for smaller credit unions while helping them build strong relationships and make impacts within their communities. Before retiring in 2019, Dorothy administered the Gary Gillam Award since its inception in 1996, honouring thirty people and organizations.

“Dorothy Watson worked tirelessly to advocate for social responsibility within the credit union system. Her efforts continue to influence credit unions across Canada in their approaches to working with their communities, and we are honoured to recognize her lasting impact,” says Mark Blucher, CEO Central 1.

“On behalf of Alterna Savings, I congratulate Dorothy Watson for her outstanding achievements and for embodying the credit union principle, Concern for Community. Members and employees like Dorothy set credit unions apart from more traditional financial institutions. We are extremely pleased to celebrate members’ socially responsible and sustainable community values through the Gary Gilliam Award,” said Rob Paterson, Alterna President and CEO.

As sponsors of the award, Central 1 and Alterna will be donating $2,500 towards the charity of Dorothy’s choice, the Dorothy Watson Co-operative Young Leaders Bursary fund. The fund supports emerging leaders that are advancing the cooperative system. Advocating for social responsibility and sustainability is vital to helping next-generation leaders understand and feel supported as they advance the mission of credit unions.
